

Bloomberg Law: Patients Target Insurers in Suits Over Flawed Doctor Directories

In “Patients Target Insurers in Suits Over Flawed Doctor Directories” (Bloomberg Law, March 13, 2025), Bloomberg Law discusses a growing trend of lawsuits targeting health insurance companies over inaccuracies in provider directories, highlighting increasing legal efforts to resolve this longstanding industry problem.

The article highlights a pivotal class action lawsuit filed by Pollock Cohen LLP in the US District Court for the Southern District of New York against Anthem, viewed as a bellwether for similar cases.

Pollock Cohen LLP anticipates filing additional lawsuits, having already collected over 100 responses from plaintiffs against nine insurance companies.

The plaintiffs in the Anthem matter are represented by Pollock Cohen LLP partner Steve Cohen and co-counsel Walden Macht Haran & Williams LLP partner Jake Gardener.
