
2025 Chambers Selects Pollock Cohen for Regional Spotlight Recognition in Litigation

NEW YORK, Nov. 13, 2024 /PRNewswire/ — Pollock Cohen LLP has been recognized for its litigation work in the Chambers USA Regional Spotlight Guide: New York Litigation: General Commercial Litigation. The firm is one of only 44 firms in New York ranked.

"We are once again honored and grateful to be acknowledged by what is undoubtedly the leading legal rankings guide. To be ranked in the Chambers Regional Spotlight Guide is an incredible accomplishment; credit goes to the entire Pollock Cohen team. Our lawyers and analysts work tirelessly on behalf of our clients – on cases with impact, meaning, and where we can make a difference," said Pollock Cohen LLP founding partners Adam Pollock and Steve Cohen.

Chambers notes, "Pollock Cohen LLP is highlighted for its focus on impact litigation. The New York-based firm has an impressive track record in handling False Claims Act cases and whistleblower actions. Lawyers at the firm excel in handling litigation on behalf of individuals and companies, often against large organizations. In addition, the firm is highlighted for its growing class action practice."

Only 210 firms across 24 practice areas were awarded rankings in Chambers Regional Spotlight New York State. Selections were based on independent and in-depth market analysis coupled with an assessment of each firm's experience, expertise, and caliber of talent. Pollock Cohen is one of only 44 firms in New York City to be recognized for Litigation.

Chambers USA is published by Chambers and Partners, one of the most respected and sought-after legal guides worldwide. The Regional Spotlight rankings are awarded at the firm-wide level; the Guide was developed to identify and shine a light on well-known smaller and mid-market law firms sought after for their expertise in certain selected practice areas.
