

Andrea Nishi

Associate

Andrea@PollockCohen.com

Andrea is an associate who focuses on judgment enforcement and appellate litigation.

Before joining the firm, Andrea clerked for the Honorable Robert D. Sack on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. She also served as a Climate Justice Fellow at the Sabin Center for Climate Change Law and a Corporation Counsel Honors Fellow at the New York City Law Department.

Andrea graduated from Columbia Law School, where she was a James Kent Scholar and the Executive Essays & Reviews Editor for the Columbia Law Review. During her time at Columbia, she received the Ruth Bader Ginsburg Prize for outstanding academic achievement, as well as the Wilfred Feinberg Prize for her work in the field of federal courts, the Class of 1912 Prize for her work on the subject of contracts, and the Milton B. Conford Book Prize in Jurisprudence for her writing on judicial use of artificial intelligence.

In her free time, Andrea enjoys sailing, backgammon, and the work of Annie Ernaux.

Practices

- Judgment Enforcement
- Appeals and Supreme Court

Education

- University of Chicago, B.A., 2013
- Columbia Law School, J.D., 2020

Admissions

- New York

- U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit
- U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York
- U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of New York

Clerkship

- Hon. Robert D. Sack, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit